SUMMARY :

The film achieves instant viewer immersion with a 10-minute action sequence that must have tied up traffic in the city for several days. Led by cop and former Special Forces ace, a gang comprising police and/or ex-military pulls off a bank job that spirals into a battle on a crowded freeway that gets very messy.

More intriguing is the revelation that behind it all is a ruthless Israeli-Russian mob, Irina Vlaslov played by Kate Winslet.

REVIEW :

What does generate interest is the overlapping of good and bad, between policeman/soldier and criminal within the same people. Secondly, between seen-it-all Detective Sergeant Jeffrey Allen (Woody Harrelson) and his gang task-force cop nephew Chris (Casey Affleck), whose law enforcement partner turns out to be one of the criminals. The ensemble cast make it worth watching !
